

Durham University Business School is delighted to offer a scholarship for a particularly deserving FT MBA applicant from Mexico or Colombia for 2018/19. Value: £5,000

Eligibility: Based on an applicants' overall application following their offer of a place on the programme. To be eligible, you must hold an offer of a place on the 2018 full-time MBA programme and: Be a resident of Mexico or Colombia

- Bring outstanding experience
- Have an impressive academic record
- Provide diversity of background to the MBA group
- Show you will be a successful ambassador for the School during and after the programme
- Be a self-funded student

Key dates: Candidates will be automatically considered for this scholarship; no separate scholarship application is necessary. The successful recipient will be expected to contribute to the wider marketing and outreach activity of Durham University Business School.

Note: If a student is successful in receiving another DUBS FT MBA scholarship, the scholarship of greatest value will be applied (students cannot receive multiple DUBS scholarships).

Eligibility for Scholarships

To be eligible, you must hold an offer for the MBA programme by the scholarship deadline. You will automatically be considered for any relevant scholarship; you do not need to make a separate scholarship application. Recipients will be notified shortly after the deadline.
